Continuing our efforts to provide citizens with town information in easy to use formats, American Legal Publishing has provided a quote to convert and host our codified ordinance online. This will allow anybody with a computer and access to the web to view our ordinances and regulations. It will also help with updating codebooks for councilmembers and staff. The cost will be:

$550 for conversion

$450 per year for hosting

$1.95/page as updates are done
